

The River

The River is a hunter
It hunts like a pro,
It has killed many people
Hope you're not next.

The River is a sapphire,
It glimmers in the moon light,
It is calm and peaceful at night,
The River is ever so bright.

The River is a harpist,
As it plays peaceful music.
It is a musical spirit when it plays
It makes you sleep.

The River is a dragon,
It destroys everything in its way
It has eaten a lot of people,
Hope you're not next.
