Disability Statement

The DDA 2005 defines a disabled person as someone who has a 'physical or mental impairment, which has a substantial or long-term adverse effect on his or her ability to carry out normal day-to-day activities.' In line with the DDA 2005, we aim to:

- Promote quality of opportunity between disabled persons and other persons
- Eliminate discrimination that is unlawful under the Disability Discrimination Act (1995)
- Eliminate harassment of disabled persons that is related to their disabilities

We are committed to ensuring equality of education and opportunity for disabled pupils, staff and all those receiving services from the school. We aim to develop a culture of inclusion and diversity in which people feel free to disclose their disability and to participate fully in school life.

We will make reasonable adjustments to make sure that the school environment is as accessible as possible. We believe that diversity is a strength of the school, which should be respected and celebrated by all those who learn, teach and visit here.

In order to achieve this, we will:-

- Promote positive attitudes towards disabled persons
- Encourage participation by disabled persons in the life of the school
- Take steps to take account of disabled persons more favourably than other persons

We will not tolerate disability related harassment and will deal with it through our relevant established procedures. All staff are responsible for ensuring that incidents of disability related harassment or disability discrimination are recorded and referred to the relevant member of the senior leadership group. We will monitor and report on such incidents on a regular basis. Breaches of our policy on disability equality will be dealt with in accordance with the disciplinary provisions set out in the relevant school policy.

We plan to increase access to education for disabled pupils by:

- Increasing the extent to which disabled pupils can participate in the school curriculum
- Improving the environment within the limitations of the school building, to increase the extent to which disabled pupils can take advantage of education and associated services
- Improving the delivery of information to disabled pupils, to the standard of which is provided in writing for pupils who are not disabled

We welcome the requirements of the Gender Equality Duty and this section sets out our commitment to meeting the duty. We will give due regard to the need to:

- Eliminate unlawful discrimination and harassment on the grounds of sex, including domestic violence, sexual violence, bullying and exploitation

- Promote equality of opportunity between woman and men in all our functions

Special Education Needs

Children with special educational needs should be offered access to a broad, balanced and relevant education, including an appropriate curriculum for the Early Years Foundation Stage and National Curriculum.

Close regard is paid to the three key principles of inclusive education.

- Setting suitable learning challenges
- Responding to pupils' diverse learning needs
- Overcoming potential barriers to learning and provide continuous assessment of children's needs and provision.

To achieve our aims, we will:-

- Identify need as early as possible and provide effective support
- Adopt a whole school approach to the identification, assessment and provision for children with special educational needs
- View our special needs provision as an ongoing, developing process
- Provide appropriate in-class support which enable children to have access to the curriculum, including the National Curriculum and Early Years foundation stage
- Incorporate special educational needs procedures including individual education plans (IEPs) into curriculum planning
- Develop an effective partnership between school and home
- Encourage children and parents/carers to participate in decision-making about provision to meet their special educational needs
- Ensure that assessment and record-keeping systems provide adequate means of recording attainment and achievement and gives sufficient information for carefully planned progression at every stage
- Involve the governing body and all staff, both teaching and non-teaching, in the regular review, development and evaluation of policy and guidelines
- Ensure all those involved with children with special educational needs work as a team to support the child's learning
- Track and monitor provision and procedures which have been put into place, to ensure children with SEN make appropriate progress as they move through the school

Definition of Special Needs and the Four Areas of Need

A child or young person has special educational needs if he or she has a learning difficulty or disability which calls for special educational provision to be made for him or her. A learning difficulty or disability is a significantly greater difficulty in learning than the majority of others of the same age. Special educational provision means educational or training provision that is additional to, or different from, that made generally for others of the same age in a mainstream setting in England... Health care provision or social care provision which educates or trains a child or young person is to be treated as special educational provision. (Code of Practice 2014)

Children's needs and requirements may fall into at least one of four areas, though many children will have inter-related needs. All areas of need will have a varying degree of impact upon the child's ability to function, learn and succeed.

The areas of need are:

- Communication and interaction
- Cognition and learning
- Social, mental and emotional health
- Sensory/physical

Behaviour is no longer a SEN category; behaviour is believed to be a symptom of another area.

Communication and Interaction Difficulties

Children may have speech and language delay, impairments or disorders, specific learning difficulties e.g. dyslexia, hearing impairments or autistic spectrum disorder.

Cognition and Learning Difficulties

Children may demonstrate features of moderate, severe or profound learning difficulties; specific learning difficulties e.g. dyslexia, dyspraxia and require specific programmes to aid progression in cognition and learning. Such requirements may also apply to some extent to children with physical and sensory impairments and autistic spectrum disorder.

Social, Mental and Emotional Difficulties

Children may be withdrawn or isolated, disruptive and disturbing, hyperactive and lack concentration, present with immature social skills and/or present challenging behaviours.

Sensory and/or Physical Difficulties

Children may have profound and permanent deafness or visual impairment or lesser, or temporary levels of loss. They may have physical impairments arising from physical, neurological or metabolic causes requiring access to specific facilities or equipment. Their difficulties may cause them emotional stress or physical fatigue.

Children experiencing difficulties in any one or a combination of these areas will be entered on the school's SEN list. Children whose difficulties are solely due to the home language differing from the language in which s/he is taught are not identified as having SEN.

Procedures

School Request for Statutory Assessment or Education Health and Care Plans

A request will be made by the school to the LEA if the child has demonstrated significant cause for concern. The LEA will be given information about the child's progress over time, and will also receive documentation in relation to the child's special educational needs and any other action taken to deal with those needs, including any resources or special arrangements put in place.

The evidence will include:

- Previous individual education plans and targets for the pupil.
- Records of regular reviews and their outcomes.
- Records of the child's health and medical history where appropriate.
- National Curriculum attainment levels in literacy and numeracy.
- Education and other assessments, for example from an advisory specialist support teacher or educational psychologist.
- Views of the parents.

SEN Support

When a teacher who works day-to-day with the child, or SENCO, identifies a child with special educational needs, they should devise interventions that are additional to/ or different from those provided as part of the setting's usual curriculum offer and strategies. This should be monitored over a half term period before the child referred to the SENCO for further support. However, the severity of a child's needs will dictate the period of monitoring needed.

The triggers for intervention include the child :-

- Makes little or no progress even when teaching approaches are targeted particularly in a child's identified area of weakness
- Shows signs of difficulty in developing literacy or mathematics skills which result in poor attainment in some curriculum areas
- Presents persistent emotional or behavioural difficulties which are not ameliorated by the behaviour management techniques usually employed in the school
- Has sensory or physical problems, and continues to make little or no progress despite the provision of specialist equipment
- Has communication and/or interaction difficulties, and continues to make little or no progress despite the provision of a differentiated curriculum

Below is a list of strategies which might be used to support a child within school:-

- Classroom organisation and management
- In-class support by teacher/teacher assistant
- Withdrawal for individual/small group work
- Home/school reading schemes
- Behaviour modification programmes
- Use of specialist equipment

- Alternative teaching strategies
- Modified curriculum or organisation of the school day
- External support services may also be used to provide additional support and/or advice. They can also provide more specialist assessments that can inform planning and the measurement of a pupil's progress.

The triggers for external support could be that, despite receiving an individualised programme and/or concentrated support, the child:

- Continues to make little or no progress in specific areas over a long period
- Continues to work substantially below National Curriculum year group expectations
- Has emotional or behavioural difficulties which substantially and regularly interferes with the child's own learning or that of the class or group, despite having an individualised behaviour management programme
- Has sensory or physical needs, and requires additional specialist equipment or regular advice or visits by a specialist service
- Has ongoing communication or interaction difficulties that impede the development of social relationships and cause substantial barriers to learning

Assessment

P levels should be used to assess the progress and achievement of children in KS1 and 2 who are not reaching National Curriculum year group expectations.

Writing Individual Education Plans

To coordinate the support a child will receive to address the concerns raised, an Individual Education Plan (IEP) will be created. All key stakeholders contribute to the creation of the IEP, and it is used to record all the strategies which will be used. IEP's also enable the school, the child and their parents/carers to monitor the progress their child has made towards the strategies employed. IEPs are written and reviewed three times a year.

IEPs include: -

- The child's strengths, successes, difficulties and current attainment
- Short-term targets relating to addressing the key barriers to learning for the child
- Success criteria
- The teaching strategies to be used
- The provision to be put into place
- Timescales to achieve targets
- When the plan is to be reviewed
- Outcomes (to be recorded when the IEP is reviewed)

Conducting IEP Reviews

At the IEP review meeting, the child's progress towards meeting the targets set are discussed and new targets identified. The meeting should consider the following questions: -

- What are the child's current levels of attainment relating to IEP targets?
- What progress has the child made towards meeting the overall targets set out in the IEP?
- What are the parent's/carer's views of the child's progress?
- Does the provision need to be adjusted?
- What targets should be set?
- Have there been any significant changes to the child's circumstances?
- Have there been any significant changes in the child's special educational needs and therefore do they need to move within the graduated stage?
- How will future targets be assessed?
- Are there any particular strategies that have led to improvement?

Statutory Annual Reviews

For a child who has an EHC Plan, the LA has a statutory duty to formally review his/her statement / plan, at least annually. Annual Review Meetings are organised in school by the SENCO.

The annual is in four parts:

1. Collection and collation of information
2. Annual Review Meeting
3. SENCO's report of the annual review
4. LA Review

Annual Review Procedure

The aims of the review are to:

- Assess the child's progress towards meeting the objectives within the statement
- Review the educational progress made by the child
- Consider the effectiveness of the statement in light of the child's progress
- Sets new targets for the coming year, or determine whether amendments to the statement are necessary.
- Record information which the school and other professionals can use the plan provision and support the child

The SENCO will: -

- Maintains a calendar of review dates
- Determines who should be invited to attend each meeting (at a minimum this would include the SENCO, parents/carers, LA representative and designated medical officer)
- Seeks the view of the child and invites him/her to all or part of the meeting
- Plans Annual Review Meetings in advance and contacts professionals by letter
- Seeks written advice on the child's progress from all invited to the meeting, including the parents/carers
- Sends out formal invitations to parents/carers by letter, giving suitable notice
- Co-ordinates receipt of all reports and ensures copies are circulated to each person invited to attend the review

Reporting of the Annual Review Meeting

During and after the meeting the views of the parents/carers in terms of the aims for the child and provision to be made are recorded and the SENCO records the outcomes of the meeting on the Statutory Assessment Review Record form. Copies of all reports and any additional materials including the most recent IEP are forwarded to all those present at the meeting; all those invited to the meeting but who were unable to attend; and, the LA's Named Officer responsible for SEN.

Gifted and Talented

At Victory Primary School we believe that all children are entitled to an education that will enable them to develop their full potential, be that intellectual, physical, aesthetic, creative, emotional, spiritual or social.

At Victory Primary School we are also committed to providing a sufficiently challenging curriculum for all our pupils, and provide opportunities to identify and nurture children's exceptional abilities.

Definition

In defining what is meant by the term 'more able', we have adapted the following definitions: -

- Those who show an exceptional ability in 'the arts', i.e. music, dance, sports or art.
- Children who possess an academic learning ability and understanding that is significantly higher than their peers.

Identification

No one method of identification can be entirely accurate since specific subject criteria will develop. Therefore, we endeavour to obtain as much information about individual pupils as possible. The methods employed are as follows: -

- Information from any previous school
- Internal and external assessment and testing
- Specific criteria developed by subject leaders or professional associations
- Internal or external nominations

Evaluation

As with all our school policies, consistent practice across the school is of paramount importance and thus we must evaluate our progress. The responsibility of the evaluation will fall to the G&T co-ordinator, who will report directly to the senior management team. Results of the evaluation will be discussed annually at senior team meetings and shared with the appropriate staff.

Arrangements for coordinating provision

- The appointment of a named individual to coordinate and champion the needs of more able pupils
- Establishing mechanisms for monitoring progress of more able pupils.
- All schemes of work are planned by teachers to include specific enrichment materials.
- An awareness amongst all staff of their role in the identification of more able pupils, based on subject-specific criteria and the need to make the curriculum sufficiently challenging.
- The establishment of a register of more able pupils established by the G&T coordinator.
- Continuing professional development for staff that addresses the implications of more able pupils for senior management, within individual subject areas and develops teaching and learning styles that take account of differentiation, enrichment and extension.
- The effective assessment of pupil's potential and performance. An audit of enrichment and extension opportunities provided by the wider extra curricular programmes, led by the G&T coordinator.
- The provision of discreet pastoral care (where required) on an individual basis.
- Opportunities for more able pupils to work together.
- Recognition, celebration and rewarding of achievement of all pupils.
- Mechanisms to identify and address underachievements.

Responsibilities

Class teachers

- To identify pupils who meet the criteria
- To pass these names onto the curriculum coordinator and to the G&T coordinator
- To provide schemes of work that contain enrichment/extension material for identified pupils

Deputy Head teacher

- To monitor the schemes of work
- To work with the G&T coordinator to oversee the process and activity monitoring agendas

G&T coordinator/leading teacher

- To prepare and maintain a GT register from prior attainment data
- To categorise this information in a way agreed with the senior management team
- To prepare additional activities for who are identified as GT
- To monitor the provision for more able pupils
- To evaluate the progress made by pupils and provision generally on an annual basis

Communication

The assessment will: -

- Highlight training and support needed by staff to enable them to ensure the quality and equality of the service they provide
- Identify what is working well and what needs to be improved
- Focus on outcomes and tangible improvements
- Establish equality issues within the school's wider review and decision-making processes
